

Bible Study: Why Christians Don't Know Yahuah

1. The Creator's Name Was Replaced

The original Hebrew scriptures used the name Yahuah (YHWH) nearly 7,000 times. However, most English Bibles replaced it with 'LORD' in capital letters. This tradition began with Jewish scribes who avoided pronouncing the name, and continued with Christian translators who followed the same practice.

2. Greek and Roman Influence

As Christianity spread through the Roman Empire, Hebrew names were replaced or transliterated to fit Greek and Latin languages. Yahuah became 'Theos' (Greek) and 'Deus' (Latin), and was further generalized into 'God' and 'Lord' in English.

3. Catholic Church Suppression

The Roman Catholic Church played a major role in shaping global Christianity. It restricted Bible access to clergy, and promoted Latin titles like 'Dominus' (Lord), suppressing the original name Yahuah. This led to centuries of believers never hearing the true name.

4. Modern Christian Tradition Lacks Hebrew Roots

Today's Christianity is largely based on tradition rather than the Hebrew scriptures. Most pastors and seminaries do not teach the original names, causing generations of believers to grow up without knowing Yahuah's name.

5. The Bible Warned This Would Happen

- Jeremiah 23:27 - '...who think to cause my people to forget my name...'
- Daniel 7:25 - 'He shall think to change times and laws.'
- John 17:6 - 'I have manifested Your name to the men You gave Me...'
- Psalm 91:14 - 'I will set him on high because he has known My name.'

Conclusion

Christians don't know the name Yahuah because of centuries of translation changes, Roman control, and lack of teaching from the Hebrew scriptures. However, a remnant is waking up to the truth and returning to the Name and the Covenant.
