

What the Bible Says About Arguing Over Scripture

2 Timothy 2:14

"Remind them of these things, charging them before Yahuah not to strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers."

This verse warns that arguing over words can be pointless and harmful to those listening.

2 Timothy 2:23-24

"But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife. And a servant of the Master must not quarrel but be gentle to all, able to teach, patient."

Disputes not rooted in truth or love bring division. We must teach with patience and gentleness.

Titus 3:9

"But avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless."

Some debates can become distractions from living out the faith and walking in love.

Proverbs 17:14

"Starting a quarrel is like opening a floodgate, so stop before a dispute breaks out."

What the Bible Says About Arguing Over Scripture

Arguments can quickly spiral out of control. Wisdom is found in restraint and peace.

1 Corinthians 1:10

"...that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

Unity is vital. Arguing over interpretations can divide the body of believers.

Summary

The Bible encourages study, correction, and teaching in love--not heated debates or quarrels. Share truth with humility and patience, aiming to build up, not tear down. When disagreements arise, seek understanding through prayer, Scripture, and the Spirit of Yahuah.
